

RIO GRANDE MATHEMATICS AND SCIENCE TEACHER PREPARATION ACADEMY

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MATH AND SCIENCE TEACHERS

UTPA-MSTPA

The UTPA Mathematics and Science Teacher Preparation Academy (MSTPA) aims to enhance efforts in improving math and science education in K-12 in the South Texas region by increasing teachers' understanding in the areas of content and pedagogy for classroom practices.

Graduate Programs Offered:

- Master of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies
Mathematics Education (or MS in Mathematics Teaching)
- Master of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies - Chemistry Education
- Master of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies - Physics Education

This project is funded by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board under MSTTPA Cycle 3.

Support for Participants

Participants will receive full tuition/fee waiver for graduate programs, and more.

Your Commitment:

- Attend a graduate program.
- Participate in Learning Academy Seminars .
- Complete learning Module Assignments.
- Conduct an action research project.

For further information visit:

www.math.utpa.edu/mstpa

Phone: 956/381-2264 or 965/381-2263
Fax: 956/384-5091

Dr. JenqJong Tsay
Project Director
E-mail: jtsay@utpa.edu

Joanne Fraser
Project Secretary
E-mail: fraserjs@utpa.edu

Participating Independent School Districts

PSJA	Valleyview	Weslaco
Mission	Mercedes	Rio Grande City
IDEA	La Joya	